Bruce Stanfil Quoted in Midstream Business on Sector's Regulatory Outlook

June 6, 2017

Bruce Stanfil spoke with Hart Energy's Midstream Business in an article titled, "Legal Challenges Match the Midstream Buildout," in which he addressed how shifts in market conditions and changes to the regulatory framework are affecting midstream operators, as well as service and supply companies. Stanfil's comments follow his participation as lead panelist during Hart Energy's MIDSTREAM Texas annual conference, a gathering of top executives from the world' leading energy companies.
