akerman

People

William C. Arnhols

Chair, Corporate Finance and Lending Practice

Miami
T: +1 305 982 5623

william.arnhols@akerman.com
vCard

Ranked by Chambers USA, which lauds his reputation as a corporate lawyer "who serves his clients very well," William Arnhols has more than three decades of experience navigating public and private debt transactions. He has negotiated complex billion dollar transactions, and frequently acts as borrower's counsel for revolving credit and term loan facilities utilizing a variety of structures and in a broad range of industries.

Notable Work

Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facilities: Borrower's counsel for aggregate USD$1.7 billion first lien term loan and multicurrency revolving credit facility, including uncommitted foreign dollar denominated competitive bid letter of credit facility.

Debt Offerings: Counsel to client accessing hi-yield debt markets from time to time for past 14 years.

Lending Transactions: Counsel to private bank of recognized national standing in numerous secured and unsecured lending transactions.

Affiliations

- The Florida Bar, Member

Honors and Distinctions

- The Best Lawyers in America, 2007-2024, Listed in Florida for Banking and Finance Law and Corporate Law
- Chambers USA 2012-2023, Ranked in Florida for Banking & Finance: Transactional
- Super Lawyers Magazine 2014-2021, Listed in Florida for Banking
- South Florida Legal Guide Top Lawyers 2012, 2014-2019, Listed for Corporate and Business, Banking

Areas of Experience

Corporate
Corporate Finance and Lending
Financial Services

Education

J.D., Notre Dame Law School, 1985
B.A., Bucknell University, 1982, cum laude

Admissions

Bars

Florida

Related Content

Record Number of Akerman Lawyers Named to The Best Lawyers in America 2024 Guide
August 22, 2023

Akerman Represents HEICO Corporation in $1.2 Billion Senior Notes Offering July 27, 2023

Akerman Represents HEICO Corporation in $2.05 Billion Acquisition
May 15, 2023

- Daily Business Review 2013, 2014, Top Dealmaker Finalist for Corporate Finance