Lorayne Perez represents clients in commercial litigation and appellate matters, including in the areas of business torts, breach of contract, real estate litigation, trust and estates, labor and employment, professional malpractice, and arbitration agreements.

Notable Work

Retail: Assisted in the representation of a global retailer in federal litigation involving the development of a retail shopping center which resulted in a partial summary judgment in favor of our client, followed by a favorable unanimous jury verdict after a three-week trial.

Appellate: Assisted in the appellate representation of a large, local car dealership to obtain a reversal of the trial court's order denying motion to compel arbitration.

Real Estate: Assisted in the representation of a real estate development firm to obtain a favorable outcome vindicating contractual rights to building signage.
