Akerman Partner Kenneth Wiggins Named BTI M&A Client Service All-Star

October 12, 2021

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP is pleased to announce that Miami-based Corporate partner Kenneth Wiggins was named as a “2021 BTI M&A Client Service All-Star,” awarded by legal consulting firm BTI based on extensive client interviews.

These 207 attorneys “were able to grasp clients’ new needs (often before the clients did), expectations and risks,” according to BTI President Michael Rynowecer. “They set the standard for delivering the absolute best client service. More importantly, they knew what to do—and how to communicate all this back to clients in real-time—because top management wanted to know the strategy and the progress every step of the way.”

Attorneys were recognized for their intense focus, exceptional understanding of their client’s business, and ability to deliver a plan of action that yields results and their overall legal prowess. BTI has been bestowing client service awards on attorneys for 19 years.

Ranked by Best Lawyers in America and The Legal 500, in addition to BTI, Wiggins represents public and private companies, private equity funds, and individuals in complex corporate transactions and general corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity, venture and growth capital investments, private placements of debt and
