Dale Noll represents trustees, personal representatives, guardians, and beneficiaries in a wide variety of fiduciary issues, and assists them in their roles as fiduciaries in administering estates, guardianships, and trusts. A particular focus of his practice is the representation of corporate or individual fiduciaries, beneficiaries, and other interested parties in high conflict, complex, and high-profile guardianship, trust, and probate matters at the county probate court and appellate levels. Dale also has experience representing corporate entities and individuals handling issues related to trust administration, incapacity proceedings, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, and wills and trusts.

Dale is an alumni of the Florida Bar's Wm. Reece Smith, Jr. Leadership Academy and a member of various committees of the Florida Bar's Real Property, Probate, and Trust Law Section. Dale has served as a board member and as president of the National LGBT Bar Association and has served in leadership positions in various local organizations. Dale was pivotal in creating the National LGBT Bar Association's annual Trust & Estates Institute and is on the planning committee for its third year. Dale is the Chair of Akerman's LGBT Affinity Group and sits on Akerman's Equality and Inclusion Committee.

Dale graduated magna cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law in 2012.

Dale is licensed to practice in Florida and California.
