Akerman Expands Real Estate Practice Group with Partner Tracy Plott in Atlanta

December 2, 2021

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP is pleased to announce that it has expanded its Real Estate Practice Group with partner Tracy Plott in Atlanta. Plott has extensive experience in commercial and real estate financing transactions.

“Tracy’s wide-ranging real estate experience will expand upon our full team’s strengths and capabilities,” said Real Estate Practice Chair Eric Rapkin. “Her skills will further deepen our Real Estate bench not only in key markets such as Atlanta, but also across the country.”

With more than 30 years of experience, Plott has significant experience in asset-based financing, restructuring of debt obligations, bond financing, joint ventures, syndications of loans, and limited partnerships. Her lending practice encompasses construction, permanent and mezzanine lending, asset-based financing, and synthetic leases.

Plott also represents corporate and other clients in the acquisition, development, leasing, and disposition of real property. Her acquisition and development practice includes representing clients involved in commercial, industrial, health care, and recreational communities. She is experienced in forming joint ventures for the acquisition, development, and management of real property.
