WorkedUp: Is Antitrust The Next Frontier In Employment Law?

March 11, 2020

In this episode, Matt Steinberg welcomes renowned legal scholar and University of Chicago Law Professor, Eric Posner. Professor Posner and Matt discuss the increasingly important intersection between antitrust and employment law, particularly in the context of mergers and acquisitions, the various types of antitrust causes of action which can be asserted in employment-related litigation, and other topical questions surrounding the geographic concentration of our economy's labor markets. A renowned author of numerous books and articles, Professor Posner previously made an appearance on our podcast, where he discussed the increased legal, legislative, and social scrutiny surrounding noncompetition agreements.
