

People

Paige Cham is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group. She navigates complex litigation matters, including administrative hearings. Paige represents municipal authorities, private corporations, financial institutions, and individuals, in all areas of general commercial litigation, real estate transactions, contract disputes, and governmental contracting.

In addition to her litigation practice, Paige represents clients in commercial real estate transactions, including representing buyers and sellers in acquisitions and dispositions, in leasing and development projects. She has experience conducting title and survey reviews, resolving title issues, drafting PSAs and leases, reviewing loan and mortgage documents, and assisting with 1031 transactions.

Related Professional Experience

- UF Health Shands Legal Services, Extern, August-December 2019
- Department of Homeland Security, OPLA, Memphis, TN, Intern, May-July 2019

Areas of Experience

Litigation
Commercial Disputes
Real Estate Acquisitions and Sales
Commercial Leasing and Development

Education

LL.M. in Taxation, University of Florida Levin College of Law, 2022
J.D., University of Florida Levin College of Law, 2021
B.S., University of Florida, 2018

Admissions

Bars

Florida

Languages

Farsi