Christy Hawkins to Speak on Priorities, Challenges & Opportunities in Data Privacy

February 24, 2022

10:00 AM – 11:00 AM CT

Webinar

Christy Hawkins will speak on a panel titled, “Privacy 2022: Priorities, Challenges & Opportunities” at an International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) Web Conference on February 24, 2022. Attendees will learn what to expect in the year ahead, the challenges, opportunities, trends, and good practices in 2022 and beyond. The panel will also discuss practical steps on how to cover specific requirements common across these new regulations, adapt to existing data protection laws, and how to approach these issues on an ongoing basis.
