Akerman Hosts Webinar on Construction Delays

April 21, 2022

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM ET

Virtual

Brenda Radmacher and Timothy Brashear, Director of Construction Services at Rimkus, will host a one-hour seminar on Construction Delays – “Better-Late-Than-Never is Not True for Your Construction Project.” The presentation is part of Akerman’s series of webinars on hot construction topics and this segment is designed to provide an overview and understanding of critical path scheduling, delay types, causes of delay, and damages related to delays and disruptions on construction projects. This presentation also provides a high-level overview of the forensic analysis of construction delays and methodologies utilized by experts to analyze these events to help you avoid delay claims and ensure your projects are completed as successfully as possible.

Using a series of case histories, the presenters will discuss the concepts of delay claims to expand the participants’ understanding of delay claims and how to best posture construction projects to avoid delay claims and damages.
