March 14, 2022

Cannabis Practice Chair Jonathan Robbins was featured in mycannabis.com's interview series. In the article, Robbins discussed what led him to a career in cannabis, his role as a cannabis attorney, taxation in the cannabis industry, and his personal predictions for the industry in 2022. Additionally, he shared the most rewarding aspect of his career in the industry.

“The most rewarding thing for me has been to watch the industry mature, to see stigma historically associated with cannabis get chipped away, and to realize that many of the individuals in this space truly care about their communities and the people who have fallen victim to outdated notions regarding the plant and the people consuming cannabis,” said Robbins.
