

In The News

Akerman Represents Dade Paper & Bag Co. in Combination with Imperial Bag & Paper Co., Mergers & Acquisitions Reports

June 15, 2017

As detailed in M&A and business reports, Akerman represented Dade Paper & Bag Co., a leading distributor of food packaging, paper products, foodservice disposables, and janitorial and sanitary supplies, as the company entered into a definitive agreement to combine with Imperial Bag & Paper Co. LLC, one of the nation's leading distributors of disposable food service and janitorial supplies. The combined business will reach total revenues of more than $1 billion. Carl Roston, co-chair of the Mergers & Acquisitions and Private Equity Practice, led the team that represented Dade Paper & Bag Co. He was assisted by Scott Wasserman, William Sullivan and Julia Seider.

NJBIZ: Jersey City's Imperial Bag Combining with Florida Company

Mergers & Acquisitions: Two Food Packaging Manufacturers Merge and Seek Add-on Deal

Related People

Carl D. Roston
Julia Seider Browne
Bill Sullivan
Scott Wasserman

Related Work

Corporate
M&A and Private Equity