Amid Rapid Growth, Media Feature Akerman's Move to Larger Downtown LA Office

July 15, 2017

After more than doubling its size since 2015, Akerman's Los Angeles office moved to The CalEdison DTLA, a historic city landmark, to accommodate its continued growth in the region. The new office represents an 80 percent expansion and applies modern design concepts trending among entrepreneurial-minded businesses, including many of the elements seen in Akerman's Miami and Chicago offices. The firm's client-driven expansion was reported by CoStar, Los Angeles Daily Journal and The Real Deal, and other media.
