

People

Samuel Wesley

Associate, Litigation

Atlanta

T: +1 404 733 9837

samuel.wesley@akerman.com

vCard

Samuel Wesley focuses his practice on advising domestic and international insurers on coverage matters. He regularly defends both first-party and third-party claims, including handling bad faith actions and pursuing declaratory judgment actions. He also defends insureds in various areas of litigation, including municipal liability, employment/labor disputes, products liability, and malpractice liability.

Related Professional Experience

- Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Judge Wendy Shoob, Fulton Superior Court, Atlanta, January-May 2016

Published Work and Lectures

- Journal of Emerging Issues in Litigation*, Volume 4, Number 3, Co-Author, "Why Plaintiffs' Lawyers Are Defeating Their Own Settlement Offers and How Georgia Has Started to Even the Playing Field," Summer 2024

Honors and Distinctions

- Best Lawyers*, 2024-2025, Listed in Georgia for Insurance Law as "One to Watch"

Areas of Experience

Litigation
Insurance Litigation
Product Liability and Mass Torts
Professional Liability

Education

J.D., Georgia State University College of Law, 2017, cum laude
B.S., University of Vermont, 2013

Admissions

Bars

Georgia
South Carolina

Related Content

Abracadabra – How a Stalking Bill Magically Turned into Revisions to a Georgia Settlement Statute
July 09, 2024

April Fools? Nope. Hard-to-Believe Reasons Used to Defeat Acceptance of Settlement Offers
April 01, 2024

Record Number of Akerman Lawyers Named to The Best Lawyers in America 2024 Guide
August 22, 2023