Akerman Lawyer Brittanie Browning Installed as President-Elect of State Bar of Georgia Young Lawyers Division

June 14, 2022

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP is pleased to announce that litigation associate Brittanie Browning was installed as president-elect of the Young Lawyers Division (YLD) of the State Bar of Georgia on June 3rd during the organization's Annual Meeting at Amelia Island, Florida.

Prior to her election as YLD president-elect, Browning served as a member of the YLD Executive Board of Directors, for two years as co-chair of the YLD Community Service Projects Committee, as YLD secretary and, for the past year, as YLD treasurer. Her term as YLD President will be the 2023-2024 Bar Year.

Browning focuses her practice on appellate and litigation matters. Brittanie guides clients through all stages of trial and litigation including discovery, depositions, and evidentiary hearings. In addition, she handles appeals at both the state and federal level.

About Georgia Young Lawyers Division

The Georgia YLD is comprised of approximately 10,000 lawyers admitted to the State Bar of Georgia who are 36 years old or younger or who have been admitted to their first bar no more than five years. The YLD has been strengthened over the years through guidance by the State Bar of Georgia, its Executive Committee and Board of Directors, the Supreme Court, and through dedicated service rendered by its members. In keeping with its motto of “working for the profession and the public,” the YLD has more than 30 hard-working committees that produce an array of projects and programs. Through the years, the YLD has also gained national recognition by winning several American Bar Association awards for its projects and publications.
