

Press Release

Akerman Atlanta Office Honored for Diversity Initiatives by The Daily Report

June 16, 2022

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP Atlanta office was honored for its diversity initiatives by The Daily Report, the Atlanta affiliate of American Lawyer Media, at its Legal Awards dinner on Thursday, June 23rd. The firm works to advance the cause of racial justice throughout the country, including the following initiatives:

- Justice Lab: Putting racist policing on trial;
- ACLU Florida: Seeking full transparency in law enforcement;
- Mandel Legal Aid Clinic: Civil rights & police accountability project;
- Jim Crow Juries Project;
- National Urban League's 21 Pillars: A comprehensive framework for redefining public safety
- Work with, support of, and leadership roles with organizations including the Hispanic National Bar Association, the Stonewall Bar Association, the Georgia Association of Black Women Attorneys, the State Bar Diversity Program, and the Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network (GAIN);

“The firm’s proudest accomplishments have been around living diversity and inclusion in the law. Specifically, Akerman office has made an affirmative effort to reflect the community it serves,” said Atlanta

Related Work

Healthcare

Related Offices

Atlanta

Office Managing Partner Sidney Welch. “The Atlanta office consists of a majority of exceptionally talented attorneys reflecting diverse groups, and our attorneys actively give back to the community through organizations serving the community.”

Welch and seven other Akerman lawyers were on hand for the event at Flourish Atlanta in the Buckhead section of the city.

About Akerman

Akerman LLP is a top 100 U.S. law firm recognized among the most forward-thinking firms in the industry by Financial Times. Its more than 700 lawyers and business professionals collaborate with the world’s most successful enterprises and entrepreneurs to navigate change, seize opportunities, and help drive innovation and growth.