Partner Paul Foley Notes Distressed Funds in Search for Assets, Quoted in Reuters on Possible Recession

July 28, 2022

Paul Foley, Chair of the Akerman Investment Management Practice Group, was quoted nationally by Reuters News Service on the implications on investment funds of what economists believe is a possible imminent recession. In “Betting on a Recession, U.S. Distressed Debt Funds Seek Fresh Capital,” Foley remarked, “Distressed funds are looking for assets across the board, from debt to crypto and real estate.”

Reuters News Service runs in business news media outlets worldwide, so the quote appeared in Yahoo’s Business News website, on television and radio websites, and on dozens of other media outlets.
