WorkedUp: Legal and Business Issues Stemming From Employees' Out-of-Work Conduct

April 10, 2017

Matt Steinberg welcomes Angela Corridan, Director of Labor & Employment Law for JetBlue Airways Corporation, and Ron Palmese, General Counsel for Shake Shack, to generally discuss both employees' and employer's increased social and political activism and how that may change the employer/employee relationship, recent related litigation and media attention involving employees terminated for sending offensive tweets, and the various legal issues surrounding the New York Legal Activities Law.
