Akerman Expands Los Angeles Office with Corporate Partner Peter Hurm

August 30, 2022

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP today announced the growth of its Los Angeles office with corporate partner Peter Hurm. He expands the national footprint of the firm's Corporate Practice Group while adding important depth in mergers and acquisitions for publicly traded and privately held companies.

“Peter is an excellent dealmaker and a much-desired addition to our national team,” said Jonathan Awner, co-chair of Akerman's Corporate Practice Group. “Los Angeles is a vital market for many of our clients and is home to many industries that will benefit from Akerman's leading experience in corporate and M&A transactions. Peter's arrival expands our ability to serve clients in the region while also facilitating deals nationally.”

Hurm focuses his practice in the areas of corporate finance, M&A, regulatory matters, and general corporate representation across such industries as technology, entertainment, consumer goods, automotive, and manufacturing.

He serves as outside corporate development and general counsel to private companies, advising them on their ongoing business operations, as well as structuring and negotiating corporate transactions for every phase of a company's life cycle. In the M&A arena, Hurm advises on both strategic corporate and
