Akerman Expands New York Office with Healthcare M&A Partner Jordan T. Cohen

August 30, 2022

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP today announced the continued growth of its largest office, New York, with the addition of healthcare regulatory and transactional partner Jordan T. Cohen.

“The volume of mergers and acquisitions in the healthcare industry continues to rise and there are important factors clients must address throughout the transaction process,” said Robert Slavkin, chair of Akerman’s Healthcare Practice Group. “We are fortunate to expand our national practice with a skilled transactional lawyer like Jordan who has a comprehensive knowledge of the healthcare landscape and the regulatory compliance hurdles our clients face.”

Cohen advises clients on transactions involving healthcare providers and other healthcare-related platforms. He routinely provides legal counsel related to federal and state privacy and data security matters, including compliance with HIPAA’s Privacy, Security and Breach Notification Rules, as well as compliance with state breach notification laws. He also provides guidance on healthcare regulatory matters, including compliance with fraud and abuse laws such as the Anti-Kickback Statute and the Stark Law, as well as state laws related to licensure and the corporate practice of medicine.
