Akerman Partner Leslie Tomczak Selected Among Connect CRE's Women in Real Estate's 2022 Award Winners

October 17, 2022

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP is pleased to announce that Fort Lauderdale office managing partner Leslie Tomczak has been selected among Connect CRE's Women in Real Estate 2022 award winners. The award highlights women with achievements and inspirational stories who have reached respected positions of leadership and who play key mentorship roles for others in commercial real estate.

Tomczak serves as managing partner of Akerman's Fort Lauderdale office. She is a construction attorney, Board-Certified by The Florida Bar in Construction Law, whose practice focuses primarily on the representation of lenders, developers, owners, landlords, contractors, subcontractors, architects, and other design professionals, in complex construction contract, project administration, lien, and construction litigation matters. Tomczak is also a LEED® Accredited Professional who represents clients with respect to sustainable (e.g. "green") building issues.

Akerman's national Construction Practice is involved in the legal aspects of major construction initiatives and infrastructure projects around the world, providing pragmatic counsel on contracting strategies, contract drafting, formation, and administration issues, as well as construction
