Donnie King is an experienced first-chair trial lawyer with a national practice focused on representing clients in complex commercial litigation and arbitration. His experience includes high stakes business disputes, class actions, business torts, securities litigation, private equity litigation, civil theft matters, and catastrophic personal injury suits. He has experience representing clients in a variety of industries, including aviation, automotive, banking, consumer goods, entertainment, insurance, and utilities. He routinely tries cases in federal and state courts throughout the United States.

Donnie is a former fellow of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity and a past chair of the Black Internal Bridge Network at Akerman.

Notable Work

Automotive: Obtained a $30 million plaintiff’s verdict following a two-week jury trial in the Northern District of Ohio in which our client, a Fortune 200 manufacturer of clutches used in commercial semi-trucks, sued two of its suppliers for breach of contract and breach of express and implied warranties. The jury also ruled in our client’s favor on the suppliers’ counterclaims.

Automotive/Motor Vehicle/Products Liability: Successfully obtained dismissal in a wrongful death lawsuit alleging a design defect to the braking system of a semi-truck.

Aviation/Product Liability: Obtained a complete defense verdict following a three-week jury trial, in which our clients, a French plane manufacturer and its U.S. subsidiary, were cleared on design defect, failure-to-warn, and negligence claims. The plaintiffs sought more than $40 million in punitive and other damages prior to trial. This case was featured as #4 in CVN’s Top 10 Most Impressive Defense Verdicts of 2018.
