Akerman's Richard Pinsky Shares 2023 Florida Legislative Outlook with Law360

January 3, 2023

Following a pivotal election cycle in Florida, voters handed Republicans a supermajority in the State Legislature, which has turned its attention to addressing a turbulent property insurance market and other matters including abortion, infrastructure, and sustainable investing.

Public policy manager Richard Pinsky in West Palm Beach shared his outlook for Florida legislation over the next two years as well as his predictions for Gov. DeSantis' second term.

Pinsky was quoted: "I see this upcoming session as what does Gov. DeSantis need, what would he like to see accomplished that beefs up his national resume, his national profile as voters around the country look to see who Gov. DeSantis is and what he has done in Florida."
