

In The News

Matthew Goldstein and Matthew Moedritzer Analyze Outbound Foreign Investment Restrictions

March 13, 2023

Government Affairs and Public Policy attorneys Matthew Goldstein and Matthew Moedritzer at Akerman LLP's Washington, D.C. office co-authored an article on U.S. outbound investment controls. The article outlines and discusses various restrictions on foreign investments by U.S. companies and individuals and the coming expansion of outbound investment controls under pending executive action and legislative initiatives.

The article, "The Scope and Coming Expansion of US Outbound Investment Controls," was published by WorldECR in March 2023. WorldECR is a London-based publisher with business-focused content relating to U.S. and international export controls.

Goldstein and Moedritzer focus their practice on international trade and national security laws. They consult on exports from the United States, reexports from abroad, arms brokering, foreign direct investment, and other activities regulated by the Department of Commerce Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), Department of State Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC), Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), and the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS).

Related Work

Economic Sanctions
and Export Controls
Government Strategies

Related Offices

Washington, D.C.

Click here to view this news