Akerman Partner Marissa Amuial Accepted into the Wexner Heritage Program

April 24, 2023

Real estate partner Marissa Amuial has been accepted into the Wexner Heritage Program by the Wexner Foundation, a two-year Jewish leadership development program for volunteer leaders in North America. Marissa will be one of 20 individuals from the Miami Jewish community to participate in the Miami 23 cohort.

Amuial focuses her practice on land use and development, representing clients in all aspects of the development approval process including zoning applications, special area plans (SAPs), historic preservation matters, code compliance and enforcement, and other administrative and quasi-judicial hearings.
