Jonathan Robbins to Speak on The Past, Present, and Future of The Florida Cannabis Industry

May 18, 2023

3:20 PM – 4:20 PM CT

Webinar

Chair of Akerman's Cannabis Practice, Jonathan Robbins will speak on a panel titled, "State of the Florida Cannabis Industry: Today and Tomorrow" presented by Cannabis LAB. This webinar will highlight the past, present, and future of the Florida cannabis industry.

A panel of industry experts will explore the history of Florida's cannabis industry; discussing the landscape that led to the creation of the program and the continued development of the regulatory framework.

Next, the panel will explore the current state of Florida's cannabis industry, what creates a successful cannabis industry and how the current landscape promotes or hinders that success.

Lastly, the panel will explore the future of the Florida cannabis industry. Specifically looking at the current potential for increased licenses, the likelihood of adult-use or recreational marijuana and what an adult-use cannabis program looks like.

Akerman is also a sponsor of the Cannabis LAB webinar, which will feature the current potential for
