Akerman Launches Staffing Law Team

May 16, 2023

Akerman is excited to announce the launch of its Staffing Law Sector Team, which will provide cross-practice legal services specifically tailored to meet the unique needs of staffing companies. Led by veteran staffing law litigation partner Sarah Kroll-Rosenbaum, this team will help staffing companies navigate a unique legal landscape as laws and regulations continue to evolve and impact the industry.

“From global public health crises to national staffing shortages, the challenges and opportunities facing the staffing industry are robust and constantly changing,” Kroll-Rosenbaum said. “Staffing companies have to operate at warp speed and they need legal counsel that can not only keep up but see beyond the curve. That’s what gives Akerman’s Staffing Law Team an edge. We’ve distilled into one unparalleled team decades of experience serving these companies across multiple practices areas.”

Capitalizing on Akerman’s national platform, the Staffing Law Team advises staffing clients across sectors, from healthcare to construction on a broad spectrum of issues including complying with federal, state, and local law, negotiating transactions, navigating disputes, and managing day-to-day operations.
