

Speaking Engagements

Bert Greenwell to Speak on Navigating Real Estate Due Diligence in a Merger and Acquisition Transaction

June 13, 2023

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM ET

Virtual

Bert Greenwell will present at TRTCLE’s online CLE course titled, “Navigating Real Estate Due Diligence in a Merger and Acquisition Transaction.” The course will focus on the real estate due diligence component of the transaction and highlights practical tips and pitfalls that can arise. The course will also highlight the real property due diligence that should be evaluated and issues that are associated to enable clients to better determine any potential pitfalls and indeed, the true value of the transaction. The approach will be less philosophical and more practical in nature; however, both common law litigation and best practices will be discussed.

Learning objectives:

- Gain practical tips and understand the typical issues that a real estate attorney may find themselves in while participating in a corporate business transaction.
- Analyze the corporate transaction at hand.
- Adding value to the transaction purchase/sale agreement.
- Review real estate due diligence.

Related People

Robert S. ('Bert')
Greenwell

Related Work

Real Estate

Related Offices

New York

- Explore common real estate pitfalls that may impede or void a transaction.
- Investigate specific issues and/or concerns with transactions.
- Discover potential ethical concerns.

Register

Click here to register for this event.