

In The News

Mishell Parreno Taylor Shares Business Focused Solutions on PUMP Act With Wall Street Journal

June 28, 2023

Akerman Labor and Employment Partner Mishell Parreno Taylor provided the Wall Street Journal some insight into the recently enacted PUMP Act. The law, which went into effect just before the new year, expands the employment protections previously afforded to nursing employees through the Break Time for Nursing Mothers Law (Break Time Law).

Not complying with the law could result in fines and lawsuits. Parreno Taylor told the Journal employers should carefully train front-line managers about the law and how to administer breaks.

You can read the complete article here <https://theworkplacereport.cmail19.com/t/d-e-vbkldl-irjuwdjhd-r/>.

Parreno Taylor also recently provided thoughts on the Air Pump Act, which seeks to close a loophole in the PUMP Act that exempts flight crew members. You can read more about that here <https://www.akerman.com/en/firm/newsroom/mishell-parreno-taylor-comments-on-air-pump-act.html>

Related People

Mishell Parreno Taylor

Related Work

Traditional Labor Law

Related Offices

Houston
Los Angeles