Akerman Lawyer Tara Jackson Joins Chief, Exclusive Network of Women Leaders

July 17, 2023

National law firm Akerman today announced corporate associate Tara Jackson in Fort Lauderdale has been accepted to join a select community of the most powerful woman executives in the United States through Chief.

Chief is a private network built to help more women attain positions of power and to keep them there. It is the only organization specifically designed for the most powerful women executives to strengthen their leadership, magnify their influence, and pave the way to bring others with them.

With an expansive capital markets practice, Jackson is experienced in all aspects of corporate governance, initial and secondary public offerings, PIPE financing, '34 Act reporting requirements, regulatory compliance (including compliance with the SEC, NASDAQ, NYSE, and state securities laws), mergers and acquisitions, and other general corporate matters. She represents clients from a broad spectrum of industries, including healthcare, utilities, financial services, automotive, and technology. Her background in business and unique approach to problem solving enables her to provide practical solutions to complex matters.

Since launching in New York in 2019, Chief's membership has grown to more than 10,000 senior women leaders in seven cities, with a waitlist of
