Amy Leitch Named Jacksonville Bankruptcy Bar Association Chairwoman

July 17, 2023

Partner Amy Leitch was named chairwoman of the Jacksonville Bankruptcy Bar Association on June 28 for the 2023-2024 term after serving as president for one year. A long-time member of the board, Leitch has also previously served as the Association's Board Vice President and Secretary.

Leitch focuses her practice on a broad range of complex commercial litigation and bankruptcy matters, including trusts and estates, debtor-creditor law, breach of contract, business torts, shareholder "disputes, real estate, fraudulent transfers, landlord-tenant claims, judgment recovery, franchise disputes, and product liability and warranty. She represents clients throughout the United States and frequently appears in state and federal courts in Florida, Georgia, and Colorado. Her experience in probate and trust litigation includes will and trust contests and cases involving capacity, undue influence, determination of beneficiaries, homestead challenges, powers of attorney, spousal elective share, estate claims, breach of fiduciary duty, and tortious interference with inheritance.
