Matthew Goldstein Reports for Reuters on Increasingly Complex CFIUS Foreign Investment Review Process

August 8, 2023

Akerman Government Affairs and Public Policy attorney Matthew Goldstein authored an article for Reuters on the recently issued Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) Annual Report for CY 2022. The article analyzes data on investor filings and provides a detailed look inside the U.S. inbound foreign investment review process. The article, “Annual Report Highlights Increasingly Complex Foreign Investment Reviews,” is available here. It is also available on Westlaw Today.

Goldstein is based in Washington, D.C. and focuses his practice on international trade and national security laws. He consults on exports from the U.S., reexports from abroad, arms brokering, foreign investment, and other activities regulated by the Department of Commerce Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), Department of State Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC), Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), and CFIUS.
