Christian George Highlights Subchapter V Bankruptcy Risks for Bankers

August 10, 2023

While bankers are familiar with Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 of the bankruptcy code, many remain unclear on the relatively new Subchapter V form of bankruptcy. Akerman Jacksonville Office Managing Partner Christian George and co-author Jason Alpert endeavor to change that in a new article published by the Risk Management Association.

The article notes that these types of filings are expected to become more prevalent than Chapter 11 filings. It explains how banks can mitigate their potential risks by proactively understanding Subchapter V and creating systems and processes to work through its nuances.
