Akerman Continues to be Recognized by Chambers Latin America

August 30, 2023

Firm Shortlisted as Cuba Law Firm of the Year

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP continues to be highly ranked by Chambers and Partners among the world's leading law firms for resolving complex disputes and for guiding business transactions in Latin America.

Luis A. Perez, chair of Akerman's Latin America and the Caribbean Practice and Miami Co-Office Managing Partner, was ranked for the 13th consecutive time in the category of International Arbitration for the Latin America Region. This category recognizes the leading practitioners in arbitration and cross-border disputes on behalf of companies and individuals across Latin America.

Chambers and Partners also recognized International Practice Chair Pedro A. Freyre and Cuba Practice Chair Augusto E. Maxwell, who were once again ranked as leading lawyers in Corporate/Commercial – Cuba.

Additionally, Akerman is shortlisted in the Cuba (International Counsel) Law Firm of the Year category. The winner will be announced during the 2023 Chambers Latin America Awards ceremony at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Miami on November 17.
