Akerman Lawyers Write Cuba Update for Chambers

February 2, 2024

A team of Akerman’s International Practice lawyers have written an extensive update on the Helms-Burton Act for the Cuba section of Chambers and Partners’ “Litigation 2024 Global Practice Guide.” The update focuses on the most significant development during this past year: the entry of several significant judgments , and the pending appeal from those judgments.

The article, written by Akerman partners Martin Domb, Christopher Carver, Pedro Freyre, and Augusto Maxwell, also provides insights into the closely related cases of Del Valle v Trivago GmbH and North American Sugar Company v Xianjiang Goldwind Science & Technology Co.
