Brenda Radmacher to Speak on the Transition to Next Generation Energy Resources

February 22, 2024

4:00 PM – 5:00 PM ET

BRG Washington DC

1800 M St NW, Second floor

Washington, DC

Brenda Radmacher will speak on a panel titled “The Transition to Next Generation Energy Resources: Risks and Opportunities for the Construction Industry Towards Net-Zero by 2050,” presented by the North American Society of Construction Law (SCL NA). Panelists will delve into essential insights on risks, opportunities, and the dynamic landscape of energy resources.

This hybrid event will provide opportunities for those in the building industry to manage the risks as the energy and power projects continue to develop and flourish.
