New York Law Journal Features Akerman Among Fastest-Growing Firms in New York

August 24, 2016

New York Law Journal featured Akerman among the top recruiters of New York partners in 2016, making it one of the fastest-growing firms in the region. The article titled, “Florida Firms Among Top Recruiters in NYC This Year,” noted the firm has experienced five years of consecutive growth and doubled its office headcount over the same period. Steven Polivy, New York Office Managing Partner and Chair of the Economic Development and Incentives Practice, told the publication that Akerman continues to see growing client demand across areas of core strength, including middle market M&A and complex disputes, and in the financial services, real estate and energy sectors across the United States and Latin America.
