

In The News

Richard Bezold Discusses Hurricane Irma's Impact on Florida Real Estate with Law360

September 8, 2017

Real Estate Practice Group Chair Richard Bezold was quoted in a Law360 article titled, "4 Ways Hurricane Irma May Affect Florida Real Estate Deals," outlining the effect of catastrophic weather on real estate transactions and other ancillary issues tied to commercial and residential developments.

Law360 wrote, "Repairs [of commercial property] 'are going to be guided by what's in each and every lease. For the most part, there is a casualty provision in every lease,' said Richard Bezold of Akerman LLP."

Click here to view this news.

Related Work

Real Estate