Andrew Smulian Joins Exclusive Miami Herald CEO Roundtable

February 23, 2015

Andrew Smulian, Akerman Chairman and CEO, was selected to join the Miami Herald CEO Roundtable, an exclusive group of chief executives from large and small companies whose businesses mirror the local economy. As a member of the panel, Smulian will share his perspective of the current business landscape and important issues impacting the South Florida market. He is one of 25 executives on the panel and the only legal voice participating. Other members represent start-ups, publicly-held and privately-owned companies with a presence in the region.

The executives will publish their viewpoints each week in the Business Monday section of the Miami Herald.
