” Silvia is one of the most intelligent environmental attorneys and has a strong background of complex environmental issues.

- Chambers USA

A former deputy general counsel of the Florida Department of Environmental Regulation (now DEP), Silvia Alderman is the chair of Akerman’s Water Task Force, a team of multidisciplinary legal professionals and consultants advising on the regulatory and environmental challenges facing our clients. Recognized by Chambers USA, Silvia is praised for her “wealth of knowledge representing utilities” as well as being “very strong on administrative law.” She is listed in the Florida Trend Legal Elite Hall of Fame.

Silvia represents regulated interests such as developers, agricultural businesses, industrial companies, public utilities and other governmental entities in environmental and land use law. She has served as state-wide wetlands and threatened and endangered species counsel for a Fortune 10 company, and is known for her work with water resources and wastewater regulation.

With extensive experience on environmental and land use matters, Silvia works on environmental permitting and enforcement negotiation and litigation, coastal construction permitting, sovereignty submerged land leases, contracts, land development, state-owned upland leasing and easements, and local government growth and code compliance management. She has local
