

In The News

Megan Costa DeVault Named Among ‘Top Women to Watch’ by Orlando Business Journal

March 14, 2013

Megan Costa DeVault was selected as one of 26 women to be honored with a Women Who Mean Business award by the Orlando Business Journal, and was one of eight women named “Top Women to Watch.” The Women Who Mean Business awards honor Central Florida’s leading business women who have made significant career achievements and strides in public service.

DeVault has a diverse litigation practice focusing on complex commercial and business litigation, representation Fortune 500 and publicly traded companies in sophisticated business transactions ranging from contractual disputes to intellectual property litigation. She has also represented financial institutions in state-wide, large-scale complex commercial loan workout and lender liability litigation, where she has coordinated litigation matters throughout Florida involving assets and liabilities exceeding $100 million.

Award recipients will be honored at Rosen Single Creek in Orlando, Fla. on April 25.

Related People

Megan Costa DeLeon

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

Orlando