Anne Levin-Nussbaum to Speak on Energy Tax Credits

April 25, 2024

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM ET

Webinar

Anne Levin-Nussbaum will speak on a CLE webinar panel titled “Energy Tax Credits: Recent IRS Guidance, Energy Communities, Low-Income Communities, Domestic Content, and Section 48C.” The panelist will discuss which projects are potentially eligible for the Section 48C credit and Section 48(e) adder for qualified solar and wind facilities that serve low-income communities and explain the application process for allocations of both credits. Our faculty will also describe common transaction structures, and other key items regarding energy tax credits.
