

Speaking Engagements

Christian George to Moderate Panel on Mediation for Conflict Resolution

May 9, 2024

Duval County Courthouse
501 W Adams Street
Jury Assembly Room
Jacksonville, FL

Christian George will moderate a panel titled “Mediation, Bridging Perspectives: The Art of Mediation for Conflict Resolution” at the Trial Advocacy Seminar presented by the Jacksonville Bar Association. The seminar covers voir dire, providing insights into effective jury selection strategies. It also delves into mediation, offering techniques for resolving conflicts outside of court.

Additionally, the seminar explores technology in the courtroom, showcasing the latest tools for evidence presentation. Lawyers will also learn about crafting persuasive Closing Arguments, with tips on creating compelling narratives. The event culminates with a guest judge speaker, Judge Clifton Newman, providing unique insights from the bench and the significance of his presiding over the high-profile murder case of Alex Murdaugh.

Register

Click here to register for this event.

Related People

Christian P. George

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

Jacksonville