

In The News

Akerman Partner Amanda Gunter Honored with Connect CRE's Next Generation Award

May 29, 2024

We are proud to announce Akerman Real Estate Partner Amanda Gunter was selected as the recipient of the Next Generation Award by Connect CRE, which recognizes rising stars in the commercial real estate industry who have surmounted hurdles and excelled in business and leadership in the community. Located in Orlando, Gunter was selected as a Florida & Gulf Coast honoree.

Gunter is an experienced commercial real estate lawyer who focuses her practice on complex commercial real estate transactions, with an emphasis on representing master planned community developers and residential homebuilders in the acquisition, sale, and development of residential and commercial property. Her work includes advising one of the country's largest homebuilders in multimillion dollar commercial land and lot transactions, including the sale of an approximately $1.5 billion portfolio to a real estate investment management firm.

Related People

Amanda L. Gunter

Related Work

Real Estate

Related Offices

Orlando