

People

Michelle Hogan

Associate, Litigation

Fort Lauderdale

T: +1 954 331 4159

michelle.hogan@akerman.com

vCard

Michelle Hogan focuses her practice on complex commercial and tort litigation in state and federal courts, including matters involving breach of contract, product liability, business torts, and various federal statutes, such as the Helms Burton Act, Title VII, and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA). In addition to business and tort litigation, Michelle also has experience in various internal investigations involving the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA).

Before joining Akerman, Michelle practiced at a top 20 Am Law 200 firm.

Notable Work

Global Retailer: Represented a major retailer in cases brought by state and municipal governments across the country alleging that its distribution and sale of prescription opioids constituted a public nuisance.

Global Retailer: Represented a major retailer in a case brought by a group of public and private hospitals seeking to recover un- and under-reimbursed costs allegedly due to the distribution and sale of prescription opioids.

Related Professional Experience

- Law Clerk to the Honorable Rodolfo A. Ruiz II, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, 2019-2020

Areas of Experience

Litigation
Commercial Disputes
Product Liability and Mass Torts
White Collar Crime and Government Investigations

Education

J.D., University of Pennsylvania Law School, 2018,
Journal of Constitutional Law, Articles Editor
B.S., Florida International University, 2013

Admissions

Bars

Florida

Courts

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Florida
U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida
U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida
U.S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee
U.S. Court of Appeals, Eleventh Circuit
U.S. Court of Federal Claims