

People

Leah Saiontz

Associate, Bankruptcy and Reorganization

Miami

T: +1 305 982 5655

leah.saiontz@akerman.com

vCard

Leah Saiontz focuses her practice on domestic and cross-border corporate restructurings, distressed M&A, and financings. Leah regularly represents debtors and secured lenders in various matters, and has extensive experience interfacing with all stakeholders and interested parties in transactions and cases.

Related Professional Experience

- Transactional Law Clinics, Student Advocate, September-December 2017
- Goldman, Sachs & Co., Merchant Banking Division, Legal Analyst, Summer 2015
- Manhattan District Attorney's Office, Merchant Banking Division, Legal Analyst, Summer 2014

Areas of Experience

Bankruptcy and Reorganization
Buying and Selling Assets (Section 363 Sales)
Corporate Restructuring and Insolvency
Distressed and Special Assets
Secured Creditors and Debtor-in-Possession Financing

Education

J.D., Harvard Law School, 2019
B.A., Harvard College, 2016, magna cum laude

Admissions

Bars

Florida
New York

Languages

Spanish