

In The News

The Real Deal Highlights Foreign Investment Forecasts in Akerman U.S. Real Estate Sector Report

July 21, 2016

The Akerman U.S. Real Estate Sector Report was featured in an article by The Real Deal: South Florida titled, “Latin American Investors Bullish on Multifamily – and Cuba.” The article cited key forecasts in the firm’s annual report, including an influx of foreign capital expected to enter the U.S. commercial real estate market in 2016. Pedro Freyre, chair of Akerman’s International Practice, discussed the Latin American markets that show the most promise, highlighting Brazil’s strength and Cuba’s potential for long-term real estate investment.

Click here to view this news.

---

Related People

Pedro A. Freyre

---

Related Work

Latin America and the Caribbean
Real Estate

---

Related Offices

Miami