

In The News

Akerman Lawyer Alexandra Getsos Named Pro Bono Lawyer of the Month

October 21, 2024

Litigation Associate Alexandra Getsos was named by the Suffolk County Bar Association as its October 2024 Pro Bono Lawyer of the Month.

According to the Suffolk County Bar Association, “She worked tirelessly, assisting a client in finalizing a complex legal stipulation that had reached an impasse before Alexandra took on the case. She assisted this client thoughtfully and with empathy as she and the client navigated the issues and came up with a beneficial result for the client. The client expressed deep gratitude for Alexandra’s dedication and support during such a stressful period, crediting Alexandra with playing a key role in helping her on her journey towards a new beginning in her life.”

Alexandra focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation matters, including regulatory investigations, real estate litigation, complex commercial disputes, and white collar criminal defense. Alexandra has experience representing clients in all stages of litigation, in addition to arbitration, internal investigations, and conducting litigation and anti-corruption diligence for M&A transactions.

Related People

Alexandra N. Getsos

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

New York