

Seminars and Conferences

Akerman Hosts Webinar on What Employers Should Expect Under a Second Trump Administration

January 15, 2025

12:00 PM – 1:30 PM ET

Webinar

Akerman will host a webinar on What Employers Should Expect Under a Second Trump Administration. Labor and Employment Partners Jeffrey Kimmel, Erica Fleetwood, Amy Moor Gaylord, and Adam Mocciolo will present on an insightful discussion on the key changes employers should anticipate under a second Trump Administration.

This webinar will cover the evolving landscape of employment, traditional labor, and immigration laws, and provide practical guidance on how to navigate these shifts.

Key Topics:

- Potential effect upon FLSA wage and hour regulations
- Anticipated modifications to EEOC policy and enforcement practices
- Impact on FMLA and paid leave benefits
- Expansion of the definition of “covered employees” under federal and state laws

Related People

Erica V. Fleetwood
Amy Moor Gaylord
Jeffrey A. Kimmel
Adam S. Mocciolo

Related Work

Labor and Employment
Traditional Labor Law
Wage and Hour

Related Offices

Chicago
New York

- An overview of proposed employment-related legislation in the upcoming session of Congress
- Expected changes to the FTC's nationwide ban on non-competition agreements
- Expected rollbacks of union-friendly regulations and a return to more employer-friendly policies
- Shifts in NLRB election timelines
- Changes to joint employer liability under the NLRA and FLSA
- Anticipated changes to U.S. immigration policies and procedures

Register

Click here to register for this event.