Adria Crowe focuses her practice on transactional risk insurance matters. As underwriting counsel, Adria actively handles all aspects of the underwriting diligence process, including advising on pre-indication submissions, the due diligence phase, and policy negotiation. Adria advises transactional risk clients on a variety of transactions, including regular buyout M&A, real estate, and secondaries transactions, and has experience in a wide array of industries.

Adria also advises clients on a wide range of complex employee benefits related matters, including the employee benefits aspects of corporate transactions, such as mergers and acquisitions, spinoffs, divestitures, carveouts, and restructuring transactions, as well as post-closing integration matters. She has experience representing clients before the Internal Revenue Service on a variety of qualified plan correction matters, as well as advising on compliance with the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Drawing on her previous experience from practicing at both an Am Law top 5 law firm and as a consultant at a Big 4 accounting firm, Adria provides clients with a unique perspective on how to effectively address their legal responsibilities in order to meet their business objectives.
